Arts, Science and Commerce College, Mokhada, Dist. Palghar

Avishkar Research Committee

To nurture the curious minds of the students, college motivates students to take part in the various research competitions. The Avishkar research convention is the great platform for the students to sharpen the research-oriented minds. Each year college selects some of the students having research interest and provide them mentoring through expert teachers. College works keenly to give impetus to the budding analytical minds of tribal students.

College has An Avishkar Research Committee who actively promotes students to carry out research projects. Students are sensitized to participate in the Avishkar Research Convention. Each department from the college select interested students and allot them a research project. College scrutinizes the research projects of the students through organization of college level Avishkar Research competition. Then the selected projects are allowed to participate in the Avishkar Research Convention of University of Mumbai, Mumbai.
